“Solidarity ... is not a feeling of vague compassion or shallow distress at the misfortunes of so many people, both near and far. On the contrary, it is a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to the common good; that is to say to the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all.” —Pope John Paul II. Sollicitudo Rei Socialis (On Social Concern #38).

"Peace is the fruit of justice." (Is. 32:17)

"If you want peace work for justice." (Pope Paul VI)

The World Peace Prize is the brainchild of the visionary peace leader Rev. Dr. Han Min Su, who cofounded the Prize in Seoul, Republic of Korea, in 1989. The World Peace Prize Awarding Council (WPPAC) was established to select the recipients of the World Peace Prize.

The Council consists of fourteen Judges, with Dr. Han, as world leader, being the Executive Judge and Fr. Sean Mc Manus being the Chief Judge. Barbara J. Flaherty, as well as serving as a Judge, is Corporate Manager, WPPAC being incorporated in Washington, DC.

Fr. Mc Manus explains: "Dr. Han is The Leader and Master Planner. He more than anyone else has kept the dream alive. Without his vision WPPAC would not have existed, nor would it have survived without his dedication. Dr. Han is an inspired and gracious leader, full of compassion and Christian love. He is profoundly committed to the Gospel of Peace, to ecumenism among all religions, and to equality for all God's children. Our office in Washington will liaise closely and directly with his office in Seoul – as Seoul is the heart and center of Dr. Han's world-wide Mission. We are honored to help him in any way we can."

DR. HAN'S VISION NEEDED MORE THAN EVER

Washington Office. July 1, 2015 — In today's very troubled world, the vision of Dr. Han Min Su is needed now more than ever.

That is how Fr. Sean Mc Manus — Chief Judge, World Peace Prize Awarding Council — responded when asked about the many troubles afflicting the world today.

Fr. Mc Manus, speaking from Dr. Han's office on Capitol Hill, Washington, DC, said: "Our World Leader, Master Planner and Executive Judge, Dr. Han Min Su, founded the World Peace Prize in Seoul, Republic of Korea, in 1989. The World Peace Prize Awarding Council (WPPAC) was established to select the recipients of the World Peace Prize. Dr. Han's vision of world peace, justice, and harmony is needed now more than ever. Dr. Han has devoted his energy and organizing genius to this great mission—knowing, as President Kennedy did, "that here on earth God's work must truly be our own." (Inaugural Address of President John F. Kennedy. January 20, 1961.)

Barbara Flaherty, Ambassador and Corporate Manager, said: "Here in Washington it is our task and privilege to promote Dr. Han's vision throughout the USA but especially among the US Congress and US Government. We report directly to Dr. Han, as Seoul is the heart and center of the World Peace Prize Awarding Council."

WORLD PEACE PRIZE AWARDING COUNCIL

Rev. Dr. Han Min Su

World Leader and Master Planner.

World Leader and Master Planner, Rev. Dr. Han Min Su, founded the World Peace Prize in Seoul, Republic of Korea, in 1989. Dr. Han is a Presbyterian Minister.

Dr. Han's vision is one of world peace and harmony.

Dr. Han has devoted his life to this great mission—knowing, as President Kennedy did, “that here on earth God’s work must truly be our own.” (Inaugural Address of President John F. Kennedy. January 20, 1961).

The World Peace Prize Awarding Council (WPPAC), which is headquartered in Seoul with an office in Washington, D.C, was established to select the recipients of the World Peace Prize.

The International and Interfaith Board is composed of representatives of all the major worldwide religions: Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Catholicism, Protestantism, Orthodox, and Zoroastrianism.

Fr. Sean Mc Manus, President of the Capitol Hill-based Irish National Caucus, and Barbara Flaherty, Executive Vice President, were awarded with the World Peace Prize of Roving Ambassador for Peace and inducted as WPPAC Judges at a Ceremony in Seoul in 2013. Fr. Mc Manus was then selected as the Chief Judge of WPPAC.

Fr. Sean Mc Manus, Chief Judge

Fr. McManus explained: When we joined the World Peace Prize Awarding Council in 2013, we set out to accomplish TWO OBJECTIVES:

The FIRST OBJECTIVE was this: to assert the fundamental truth and basic principle, that peace is the fruit of justice—that working for peace means, in fact, working for social justice. Without justice, there is no love. No Faith. No equality. No fairness. No decency. Without justice, there is no love of God, and, certainly, no love of neighbor.

And our SECOND OBJECTIVE was this: to firmly place the American Labor Movement in the category of those who, in fact, work for peace because the Labor Movement works for justice.

If you look at America and ask the question: What group since the late 1800s has consistently worked for justice for the working men and women of America, what group comes to mind? What group has stood for equality, for solidarity, for "a just pay for a just day's work"?

Labor Leaders who spend their entire lives working in solidarity for justice for working men and women are, indeed, working for peace—not only nationally but also globally. Hence, Labor leaders are eminently qualified to be candidates for the World Peace Prize of "Roving Ambassador for Peace."

Of course, a memorable quote by Pope John Paul II, from one of his great Encyclicals helped us to make the case. Reflecting on the maxim "peace is the fruit of justice," the Pope declared: "Today, one could say, with the same exactness and the same power of biblical inspiration (cf. Isaiah 32:17; James 3:18) ... peace is the fruit of solidarity"— Encyclical, "Sollicitudo for social concerns." 39. 1988.

Working for peace—not only nationally but also globally. Hence, Labor leaders are eminently qualified to be candidates for the World Peace Prize of Roving Ambassador for Peace. And to further affirm this principle, in 2018 the WPPAC created a secondary prize: World Peace Prize for Labor Leadership.

Our Peace Prizes encourage members of the Labor Movement to positively think of themselves as not just fighters for justice but as peace builders as well. Our World Peace Prize for Labor Leadership, in particular, makes the connection between Labor and peace. I believe this gives an important dimension to Labor's self-understanding, self-image, and self-identity.

I urge Labor leaders to proudly claim this identity, to embrace it, and to promote it among the AFL-CIO. It is a powerful way to advance Labor and promote solidarity."

“I want to thank Barbara Flaherty, Fr. McManus and the World Peace Prize Awarding Council for recognizing the nexus between Organized Labor and peace. Too many times in the past we were not looked at as being part of the peace process. So, I really appreciate the World Peace Prize Awarding Council recognizing the connection between fighting for social justice and peace.”

American Labor and Irish National Caucus Working Together for Justice in Ireland

I know that Father McManus has moved the needle [on justice and human rights], and, Father, for that I offer you, on behalf of the entire AFL-CIO, a sincere, Thank you." - President Richard L. Trumka AFL-CIO, February 3, 2016.

Fr. Sean McManus—President of the Capital Hill-based Irish National Caucus—has had a very long on-going association with American Labor. He founded the Irish National Caucus on February 6, 1974. In February 1975, the Executive Council of the AFL-CIO invited him to Bal Harbour, Florida, to brief them on the Irish Issue. The Executive Council endorsed the Irish National Caucus. Then about ten years later, the Executive Council invited Fr. McManus to brief them on the Mac Bride Principles—a corporate code of conduct for American companies doing business in Northern Ireland. The AFL-CIO became the first significant group to endorse the Mac Bride Principles.

President Trumka, Tefera Gebre, Liz Powell and John Sweeney have each been awarded with the World Peace Prize of "Roving Ambassador for Peace" by Fr. McManus—who is also Chief Judge of the international and interfaith World Peace Prize (headquartered in Seoul, South Korea). President Trumka also received the new World Peace Prize for LABOR LEADERSHIP on June 19, 2018

“ROVING ABMASSADOR FOR PEACE”

NATIONAL SECRETARY-TREASURER OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES RECEIVES WORLD PEACE PRIZE

Barbara Flaherty, Dr. Everett Kelley, Fr. Sean McManus

The National Secretary-Treasurer of American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE) is the latest World Peace Prize laureate. AFGE is the largest federal employee Union proudly representing 700,000 federal and D.C. government workers nationwide and overseas.

Dr. Everett Kelley, a native of Alabama and a Baptist Minister, was honored with the Prize on Tuesday, July 9, 2019, in a ceremony appropriately held in the George Meany Room of the hallowed AFL-CIO headquarters in Washington, DC.

The late World Leader and Master Planner, Rev. Dr. Han Min Su, founded the World Peace Prize in Seoul, South Korea, in 1989.

The World Peace Prize Awarding Council consists of 14-member Board of International and Interfaith judges. The Board is comprised of representatives of the world's nine major religions: Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Catholicism, Protestantism, Russian Orthodox, and Zoroastrianism.

The presentation was made by Fr. Sean McManus—Chief Judge of the World Peace Prize and President of the Capitol Hill-based Irish National Caucus—and the ceremony was chaired by Barbara Flaherty, a Judge of the World Peace Prize Awarding Council, and Executive Vice President of the Irish National Caucus.

Fr. Mc Manus explained: "Working for peace, locally or globally, means, in effect and of necessity, working for social justice. Therefore, members of the Labor Movement are ideally qualified to be recipients of our World Peace Prize. Dr. Kelley eminently deserves this Prize. As Pope John Paul II has said, 'peace is the fruit of solidarity.' And the American Labor Movement is dedicated to solidarity, which Pope John Paul II raised to the status of a virtue in his Encyclical: Sollicitudo rei socialis ("Sollicitude for social concerns") 1988."

Dr. Kelley spoke beautifully and humbly about being honored and thrilled to receive the World Peace Prize, the meaning and purpose of which is fully aligned with his own religious view and Labor convictions

Fr. Mc Manus said: "Dr. Kelly is a most impressive man and is deeply respected in the AFGE. The National President of the AFGE, J. David Cox, Sr., attended the Presentation Ceremony and spoke very movingly about his admiration for Dr. Kelley."

Fr. Mc Manus concluded: "It was a beautiful event, full of a great sense of social justice and peace, and replete with dignity and solidarity. ENDS

Pope John Paul II referring to the motto “opus iustitiae pax” (peace is the fruit of justice), declared: “Today, one could say, with the same exactness and the same power of biblical inspiration (cf. Isaiah 32:17; James 3:18), opus solidaritatis pax (peace is the fruit of solidarity).”

— Encyclical : Sollicitudo rei socialis (“Solicitude for social concerns”). 39. 1988.

“The labor movement was the principal force that transformed misery and despair into hope and progress. Out of its bold struggles, economic and social reform gave birth to unemployment insurance, old-age pensions, government relief for the destitute and, above all, new wage levels that meant not mere survival but a tolerable life. The captains of industry did not lead this transformation; they resisted it until they were overcome. When in the thirties the wave of union organization crested over the nation, it carried to secure shores not only itself but the whole society.”

“The Mac Bride campaign, directed by the Irish National Caucus won the support of the AFL-CIO and of several religious institutional shareholders including several Catholic orders and several major Protestant denominations.”

— The Wall Street Journal, 1988.

Irish National Caucus

Ireland, too, has the right to be One Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

THE IRISH LOBBY

The Irish National Caucus (INC) is the Irish lobby on Capitol Hill, Washington, D.C. It is a human rights organization dedicated to getting the United States to stand up for justice and peace in Ireland.

NONPROFIT

The Irish National Caucus is a nonprofit organization (registered in Washington, D.C., 1978). It is 501(c) (4). The INC's sister organization, the Irish Peace Foundation, is recognized by the I.R.S. as being eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

NONVIOLENT

The Irish National Caucus is nonviolent, nonpartisan and nonsectarian. It has no foreign principal and does not support, morally or financially, any group or party in any part of Ireland. It does not send money to Ireland. All its funds are raised and spent in the United States.

HISTORIC VISION

The Irish National Caucus was the first organization in history to open and maintain headquarters on Capitol Hill to lobby for justice and peace in Ireland. That fact alone tells you a lot about the vision and purpose of the Irish National Caucus – not to mention its determination and ability. And so began a historic development: “Thus Mc Manus became Britain’s nemesis in America, the driving force that would eventually erode Britain’s influence within the U.S. Government.” (American Policy and Northern Ireland. Professor Joseph E. Thompson).

"Neither Democrat nor Republican ...But Dedicated to Getting Both Parties to Stand Up for Justice and Peace in Ireland."

WHAT THE PRESS AND CONGRESS SAY

“...The Irish National Caucus ... has been influential in getting Congress to see Northern Ireland as a human rights issue.”– The Washington Post.

“Perhaps the Caucus’ boldest success has been its efforts to create ... The Congressional Committee for Irish Affairs.”– The New York Times,

“The Mac Bride campaign, directed by the Irish National Caucus won the support of the AFL-CIO and of several religious institutional shareholders including several Catholic orders and several major Protestant denominations.” – The Wall Street Journal.

“We did not take him [INC President, Fr. Sean Mc Manus] very seriously at first, but the MacBride Principles have caused serious problems and cost millions to try to counteract.” -- A Senior British Official in Northern Ireland – Sunday Life (Belfast).

“[Fr. Mc Manus] stood out against powerful forces in a fight for justice and fairness. I didn't always agree with the causes he supported, but I admired his persistence, his courage, and his relentlessness. And admiration that one person, almost alone, could make such impact on public policy in the United States.”– Vincent Browne, Noted Dublin journalist and broadcaster.

“The growing U.S. interest in the Northern Ireland issue is traceable almost entirely to the efforts of the Irish National Caucus.” – The Evening Herald (Dublin).

“Fr. Mc Manus, from his Capitol Hill office, has been a prominent and influential figure in the quest for progress and peace with justice in Northern Ireland... His has been a unique role. Long may it continue.”-- Ray O'Hanlon. Editor, Irish Echo. New York.

“Father Sean McManus is a man to be reckoned with when it comes to advocating causes. His espousal of the MacBride Principles back in the 1980s caused fits for the British government.” – Niall O'Dowd, Editor, Irish Voice. New York.

“It all started with Father McManus. When he came over here we were all sympathetic to him.” -- House Speaker Tip O'Neill (Irish America).

“No one has done more than Father McManus to keep the U.S. Congress on track regarding justice and peace in Ireland... He singlehandedly brought the Mac Bride Principles to enactment...” – Congressman Ben Gilman (R-NY) Former Chairman of the House International Relations Committee."
